Dear Parent/Carer

Congratulations on an Excellent Be Kind Campaign

Our S1 'Be Kind' campaign has been a great success. Not only have the pupils logged over 1500 acts of kindness, pupils have doubled the number of positive referrals over the past few weeks and there has been a marked decrease in level one referrals issued. The teachers were also delighted with the personalised cards delivered by the pupils.

To celebrate, and to continue our acts of kindness, on Friday 26th, S1 are invited to get involved in a non-uniform day. Each pupil is asked to bring a donation (suggested £1) which will be donated to our school charities.

On Friday 26 May, there will be a reward afternoon for a number of our S1 pupils. All pupils who have engaged with the Be Kind campaign and have had no more than one referral in the past month will be invited to come to the hall on Friday at 1pm for a movie afternoon. Pupils are allowed to bring snack for this. The 40 pupils who have engaged most with the Be Kind campaign and have no referrals will be invited to attend a VIP version in the staffroom. Pupils who are not involved in this will be in classes as normal. Pupils will be informed about their activity on Friday during form.

Yours sincerely
